Paul Newton is a British entertainer whose MindTheft performance raises awareness to the cybersecurity threats of individuals + businesses from scammers and hackers. He has become well known as the link between the cyber experts and people who need to know the risks. His incredible performance will both educate and entertain!